

Jeffrey R. Dugas, MD

The MCG Augusta University Department of Sports Medicine is holding the 6th Annual MCG Sports Medicine and Shoulder Conference. The conference will be held on November 15, 2024, with the distinguished orthopaedic surgeon, Jeffrey R. Dugas, MD, as our visiting professor.

Dr. Dugas graduated from North Carolina State University with a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering. He continued his education at Duke University School of Medicine, graduating with his medical degree in 1994. He completed his orthopedic surgery residency at the renowned Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City. Following his orthopedic training, Dr. Dugas accepted a fellowship in sports medicine at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama.

Dr. Dugas developed a true passion for the health and injury prevention of youth baseball players. He continues to work with athletes to develop the field of sports-injury treatment and prevention. He maintains a special interest in throwing athletes, and much of his research concentrates in this area.

We appreciate your support and participation that has made our Sports Medicine and Shoulder Conference such a success. If you have any questions, please contact Carrie Reames at Rachel.Reames@wellstar.org.
